

ROBERT HOGUE

Robert worked for 30 years at Bell Canada, from which he is now retired. Throughout his career, he held the position of Business Installation and Repair Technician, as well as Coordinator at the Centralized Response Centre for major customers (Air Canada, Via Rail and Nav Canada). For 3 consecutive years, Robert was Chairman of the Regional Council of the Telephone Pioneers of America. After retiring, Robert went back to school and obtained his diploma in massage therapy. He practiced this art for 10 consecutive years.

In recent years, Robert has served as President of the Badminton Club as well as the Tennis Club in his area. Passionate about pickleball, he founded the Club de pickleball région sud-ouest in Quebec and has encouraged more than a hundred people of all ages to practice this sport. He was appointed vice-president of the Quebec Pickleball Federation, which has more than 5,000 members and has trained as a coach and referee.

In addition to practicing several sports, Robert also volunteers his time with a number of organizations. Among other things, he is a bike patroller on the bike paths in his region.
