Nominee Name: Mohammad Emon (Alberta)

Executive Bio:

Mohammad Emon is a Calgary-based professional with an MBA and a strong background in startup growth, technology, and customer success. He currently works as a Partner Success Manager at a BC-based SaaS startup, where he supports clients around the world, helping them scale through strategic engagement and partnership development. He is also in the process of becoming a licensed realtor in Alberta. Passionate about sport and community-building, Mohammad serves as an Executive Member of the East Village Neighborhood Association (EVNA) Pickleball Club, where he contributes to club operations, volunteer coordination, and local outreach. His involvement reflects his deep commitment to expanding the reach and inclusivity of pickleball in Canada. With a blend of global business expertise and grassroots leadership, Mohammad brings a unique perspective to the sport. He is excited to support Pickleball Canada's mission by helping foster growth, accessibility, and innovation across all levels of the game.
