Nominee Name: Derek Haines (British Columbia)

Executive Bio:

I was born and raised in Kamloops, B.C. self-proclaimed as the Tournament Capital of Canada. I have a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Simon Fraser University and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of British Columbia. I have been in private practice now for nearly 30 years. I have been an official in 1993 Canada Summer Games, I have umpired Kamloops Minor Baseball, I was rink manager and timekeeper for a couple of years for the Kamloops International Bantam Ice Hockey tournament, and also am an NSA/SPN Softball umpire. I have coached or assisted in Baseball, Soccer, and Hockey. I played tennis tournaments as a teen, played softball at all levels as an adult and continue to play Softball. I have managed teams for nearly 2 decades in softball. I have a diverse background along with my professional background that gives me a unique set of skills.
