Nominee Name: Renae Quinton (Ontario)

Executive Bio:

Renae Quinton is a senior marketing executive and brand strategist with over 20 years of experience. She is VP, Brand and Advertising at Global X Canada, where she drives national brand awareness and engagement across a portfolio of ETF investment products. A strong believer in the power of sport to connect communities, Renae is an active pickleball player and advocate. She is a member of the BPA and participates in city-run programs, private clubs, and weekly competitive leagues. She engages in pickleball-focused activations in Canada and the U.S., combining her professional expertise with her passion for the sport. Previously, Renae served as Director of Spring Cup for Burlington's Rhythmic Gymnastics, where she helped grow its annual competition and was recognized as Volunteer of the Year. She brings a unique blend of leadership and sport marketing knowledge to Pickleball Canada, supporting its mission to grow, and develop pickleball for all Canadians.
